

Young Shil Kim

Ewha Music Wellness Center, Ewha Womans University

24-gil, Sungsan-ro, Seodaemun-gu, Seoul 03760, Korea

mtherapy4u@gmail.com

Education

- 2012-present Ewha Womans University, Seoul, Korea
Ph.D. candidate, Music Therapy
- 1997 Ewha Womans University, Seoul, Korea
Music Therapy Education
- 1992 Ewha Woman University, Seoul, Korea
Educational Psychology

Experiences

- 2016-present Senior researcher, Ewha Music Wellness Center, Seoul, Korea
- 2012-present Supervisor, Department of Music Therapy, Graduate School, Ewha Womans University, Seoul, Korea
- 2001-present Music therapist
- 2014-present Lecturer, Department of Music Therapy, Graduate School, Ewha Womans University, Seoul, Korea
- 2013-present Senior researcher, Music therapy program for adolescences at risk, Department of Music Therapy, Graduate School, Ewha Womans University, Seoul, Korea

Training

- 2004 GIM level Training, Korean Institute of Music and Imagery, Seoul, Korea
- 2005 Supportive Music and Imagery Level 1 Training, Korean Institute of Music and Imagery, Seoul, Korea
- 2016 GIM level 3 training, Korean Institute of Music and Imagery, Seoul, Korea

Professional Affiliation

- 2012-present Assistant editorial manager, Editorial Office, Journal of Music and Human Behavior, Korean Music Therapy Education Association, Seoul, Korea.

Publications

- 2014 Kim, Y. S. (2014). Music choices of GIM (guided imagery and music) therapist in GIM: Narrative literature review. Journal of Music and Human Behavior, 11(1), 39-62.
- 2015 Kim, Y. S. (2015). Music as a therapeutic intervention for patients with schizophrenia: Systematic review. Journal of Music and Human Behavior, 12(2), 37-60.

Presentation

- 2015 Music and imagery for self-reflection. 30th Symposium, Korean Music Therapy Education Association, Seoul, Korea
- 2014 Use of music and imagery for self-reflection in working on counter-transference, Music and Imagery Association, Melbourne, Australia.